

travelers.com

The Travelers Indemnity Company and its property casualty affiliates.
One Tower Square, Hartford, CT 06183

This material is for informational purposes only. All statements herein are subject to the provisions, exclusions and conditions of the applicable policy. For an actual description of all coverages, terms and conditions, refer to the insurance policy. Coverages are subject to individual insureds meeting our underwriting qualifications and to state availability.

© 2012 The Travelers Indemnity Company. All rights reserved. Travelers and the Travelers Umbrella logo are registered trademarks of The Travelers Indemnity Company in the U.S. and other countries. PL-13474 Rev. 8-12

TRAVELERS

Risk has no shortage of options for you

PERSONAL INSURANCE

Fortunately, neither does a really good independent insurance agent.

One thing is certain – risk never stops finding new ways to surprise you. To help your insurance keep up, Travelers is proud to work with the best independent agents out there.

Why independent agents? Unlike their counterparts, independent agents are able to tap into the resources and expertise of multiple insurance companies. So from home to auto to business, you get more options, and more ways to create the insurance plan that's right for you.

There are other benefits as well. A good independent agent is free to give you objective advice. No strings attached. In short, a good agent has the ability to find the policy that meets your needs.

And perhaps best of all, independent agents also keep insurance companies on their toes. At Travelers, we never forget that our agents are not obligated to choose our policies. So we never stop looking for ways to make our policies work even harder to meet your specific needs.

So, talk to an independent agent. And make sure you're ready – for whatever risk happens to drop into your lap.

No one understands your local area and its unique risks like an independent agent.
